

EMBER COFFEE TABLE

Sculpted from solid wood and finished in a hand-shaped, charred black, the Ember Table radiates a quiet intensity. Its organic oval form is softened by gently carved sides, adding texture and subtle movement to its silhouette. A sculpted side recess exposes the natural wood beneath, offering a contrast and revealing the inherent warmth of the wood grain.

Balancing rawness with refinement, the Ember is both functional and expressive – a centerpiece that anchors a room while inviting touch and attention. Each table is available in a range of solid wood options and finishes, including a high-polished painted lacquer for a more contemporary statement.

Handcrafted in Texas.
